

The Intercessory Prayer of the Holy Spirit
(Romans 8:26-27)

I. The _____ of God as a _____

God is _____ God, _____ existing and manifesting Himself in _____ Persons: God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit; _____ in all _____ and _____.

God is only One God, yet the Bible is clear that there is _____ and _____ associated with each Member of the _____.

II. The _____ of God

- 1) God _____ our _____
- 2) God _____ the _____ of the _____ _____ certainly matter in our prayers, but even more important than our _____ is our _____.

The Holy Spirit _____ with the Father in a perfect manner without needing _____.

- 3) God _____ His Own _____
- The _____ of God is directly tied to the _____ of God mentioned in v.28-29.

By combining v.28-29 with Ephesians 1 (among others) we can safely say God's will is that:

- God's _____ be made known and _____
- God's eternal _____ be the _____ over many _____ who will be like _____

III. The _____ of _____ Prayer is the _____ part of the _____ life. Real prayer requires great _____ & _____.

Even the Apostle Paul struggled in prayer though he:

- Was personally _____ by _____ for 3 years
- Wrote _____ of the _____
- Prayed more _____ prayers than most
- Had seen the _____

We do not default to God's _____ as our _____ in prayer. Most Christians have a view that God is _____ for _____ more than they are _____ for _____. This philosophy is most clear in the _____.

We tend to pray for _____ release from _____ because we make the assumption that _____ from _____ is automatically God's will for our lives.

IV. The _____ of the _____

We have a _____ in prayer, but God's part is _____.
